HUMAN RIGHTS BROAD PERSPECTIVE

The human rights convey the basic aspects which should be followed with no deviation.

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

As human beings, we have been endowed with the capacity of logic and reason. We must sustain in our efforts to live in an accomplished world where there is no place of any discrimination against anyone.

- Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration, without distinction of any kind, such as race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.
- No distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether it be independent, trust, non-self-governing or under any other limitation of sovereignty.
- Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person. No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms. No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.
- Everyone has the right to recognition everywhere as a person before the law.
- All are equal before the law and are entitled without. Any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.
- Everyone has the right to an effective remedy by the competent national tribunals for the act violating the fundamental rights granted him by the constitution or by law.
- No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile. Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.
- Basically, human rights ensure that we are all born free. We all have our own thoughts and ideas. We should all be treated in the same way. Don't Discriminate. These rights belong to everybody, whatever our differences.
- Everyone has the right to life, and to live in freedom and safety. Nobody has any rights to make us a slave. We cannot make anyone our slave. Nobody has any right to hurt us or to torture us. You Have Rights No Matter Where You Go. I am a person just like you!

- We're All Equal before the Law. The law is the same for everyone. It must treat us all fairly. Your Human Rights Are Protected by Law.
